

The Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center Seminar for Foreign Nationals

The Tokyo Metropolitan Government will hold the Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center (TOSBEC) Seminar for Foreign Nationals on Thursday, May 18, 2017. At this seminar for foreign nationals planning to set up business in Tokyo, we will introduce, among others, the attractiveness of doing business in the capital and the measures we have in place to support them. Tokyo Governor Yuriko Koike is scheduled to speak about Tokyo's attractions, and foreign entrepreneurs who have actually started up business in Tokyo will speak about their experiences. A mixer and an opportunity to experience using TOSBEC's services will also be provided after the seminar.

About the Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center

The Tokyo One-Stop Business Establishment Center (TOSBEC) centralizes the procedures that foreign companies and start-ups need to complete to establish a business. This is the first such initiative in Japan, which was realized by employing the National Special Strategic Zone system. Through personalized services provided by experts and staff knowledgeable in administrative procedures, the center helps facilitate the prompt completion of various filing procedures required when establish a business and launching operations, including those for certification of articles of incorporation, company registration, taxes, social security, and immigration. On request, the center will also provide support for electronic applications as well as interpretation and translation services in several languages.
