

Jenifer Rogers

Jenifer Rogers is General Counsel for Asia for Asurion (an IT services company) based in Tokyo. She oversees a team of lawyers based in various countries throughout Asia, including Hong Kong, China, Japan, Taiwan, Singapore, and Australia.

She was elected as an external Director of Mitsui & Co. Ltd in 2015 and is the first foreign female director of a Japanese trading company.

Jenifer worked at Bank of America Merrill Lynch (BAML) for eighteen years and held a variety of senior legal roles in their international operations in both the global banking and markets business as well as in private wealth management business, before joining Asurion in 2012. She has been based in various cities throughout her career, including Tokyo, Hong Kong, London, New York and Mumbai. Before working at BAML, Jenifer was with the Industrial Bank of Japan Limited, New York Branch (now Mizuho Bank) after working as an associate at Haight, Gardner Poor & Havens (now Holland & Knight) in New York.

She earned a JD from the Georgetown Law Center in Washington D.C. after graduating cum laude from Georgetown University with a bachelor's degree in Foreign Service. Jenifer was a Fulbright Scholar in 1988 to the University of Tokyo, Faculty of Law. In 2005, Jenifer took a sabbatical and obtained a master's degree in International Public Policy from Johns Hopkins (S.A.I.S.) University in Washington D.C and also worked as a legal consultant for the World Bank. She is a member of the NY bar.

Jenifer was elected to the Georgetown University Board of Governors of the Alumni Association in 2016 and is an Advisor to the Georgetown Law Center Asian Alumni Advisory Board. In addition, she is Vice-Chair of the ACCJ Alternative Investment Subcommittee.